

---

Subject: Re: 2 simple questions - 3rd time's the charm?

Posted by deutsch on Fri, 28 May 1993 22:55:24 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

In article <28MAY199311395193@stars.gsfc.nasa.gov>, fireman@stars.gsfc.nasa.gov (Gwyn F. Fireman) writes:

> Hello, IDL Users -

>

> I've asked these questions a couple times before, with no response.

> Don't be shy! I'm running IDL 2.4.0 under Ultrix 4.1. A couple short > questions:

>

> What controls the background color for widgets? Is it in the > Xdefaults file? The same application has a blue background in one account, > and white in another.

>

For a Sun workstation running SunOS (unix), you can add the following in your .Xdefaults file:

Idl*background: PeachPuff2

Idl*colors: -5

where you can replace PeachPuff2 with whatever color you like.

> How can I prompt an exit from IDL from a widget application? Just > putting EXIT in the event handler gives me a callback error, although it > works fine for non-widget routines.

>

Did you try having the event-handler call a separate procedure whose sole purpose is to run an EXIT?

> Thanks,

>

> / | , , , , , _

Gwyn F. Fireman

> ( _ / | ( _ ( _ ) ( _ / | | _ /

Computer Sciences Corporation

> / | / | IUEGTC::FIREMAN

IUE Observatory

> ( _ / ( _ / fireman@iuegtc.dnet.nasa.gov (301) 794-1560

cheers,

Eric

Eric Deutsch

University of Washington

Department of Astronomy FM-20

Seattle, WA 98195

deutsch@astro.washington.edu or UWSPAN::JANUS::DEUTSCH

---