
Subject: Computing the average of a non-rectangular region in IDL

Posted by gumley on Fri, 28 May 1993 20:16:17 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hey folks.

I need to select a polygon of pixels in an image with the mouse, and then compute the mean value of the pixels within the polygon.

Does anybody have an IDL procedure that will do this, or know here I can get one?

Cheers,
Liam.
