
Subject: Re: Satellite Image Data-Map Projection Question

Posted by Kelly Dean on Fri, 24 Apr 1998 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Use Liam's IDL Satellite Image Mapping Tool -

<http://cimss.ssec.wisc.edu/~gumley/imagemap.html>

This works great. I used it just this last week to display some of our GOES-8 data.

Kelly Dean
CSU/CIRA

Dave Faysash wrote:

> Hello,
>
> Here is my problem: I have satellite image data (GOES-8) in the form > of an array(180X80) with cooresponding latitudes (180x80 array) and > longitudes (180x80). Looking through the user manual I found that I > could use map_image, but the arguments of lat,lon are vectors, not > arrays. Basically I would like to map my satellite image, with the > latitude-longitude array information, to a map projection. If > anyone could help I would appreciate it.
>
> Thanks,
>
> Dave
> FSU Meteorology
> ps if you could respond via e-mail I would appreciate it.
