
Subject: Re: 24-bit color postscript again

Posted by Amit Ghosh on Wed, 14 Oct 1998 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In article <bowman-0910980821080001@bowman.tamu.edu>, bowman@null.edu (Kenneth P. Bowman) wrote:

- > I haven't been able to make my 24-bit color postscript plotting work yet,

- > The program works when plotting to the X device (black in lower left, red in lower right, green in upper left, yellow in upper right). When the
- > PostScript option is selected (/PRINT), all of the points plot as
- > grayscale or white. How do I get the colors to work with Postscript?
- >

Ken, that is precisely the problem I have (as well as a similar problem when using write_gif or write_jpeg). Is this a NEW bud in ver 5.0 ? Because I'm sure I've done it before with an older IDL.

-----== Posted via Deja News, The Discussion Network ==-----

<http://www.dejanews.com/> Search, Read, Discuss, or Start Your Own
