Uh, lots. But he's already been on the phone asking for a refund after reading this article. :-(

Cheers,

David

P.S. Let's just say that those who can, do. Those who can't, write books. The trick when you write this up, of course, is to act like it's so obvious that any idiot could have come up with it. That's what makes you sound like an expert. :-)
