I am using IDL for my deconvolution process and I have troubles creating a window that will not pop-up each time I use a call to it. That is:
If I use shade_surf command, it will always make the window pop-up. Is there a way to make it not to do it?
Any email would be greatly appreciated.
Thank you