
Subject: Re: Virus help....

Posted by Bruce Bowler on Tue, 22 Feb 2000 08:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Make sure your virus definition file is current. If norton gives the virus a name, search their site for it, they're pretty good about telling you about how to get rid of them. If norton still isn't any help, try downloading the trial version of McAfee.

"Richard G. French" wrote:

>
> Ok, I confess - I stupidly clicked on one of those off-topic > links, out of curiosity, and it loaded a virus onto my > PC. NORTON is happy to tell me that it is a virus, and I know > the name of the file:
> C:\WINDOWS\SYSTEM\FAVPNMCFEE.dll
> but I cannot delete it since it says it is used by the system.
> I start up windows in safe mode and remove the file, but > it is recreated whenever I restart windows in its full mode.
>
> Nortons identifies this as a trapdoor/trojan virus. If any of you can > tell me how to figure out what is creating this file each time > I start up, that would be great. I don't know what the virus > is doing but I want to get rid of it!
>
> Thanks for your suggestions -
>
> Dick French
>
> NExt time, I'll just stick to the IDL questions!
