Subject: Re: Binary Output/Input From/To IDL on PC??????
Posted by cnlenz on Thu, 21 Apr 1994 05:56:50 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

>> I produce an array (145,73,10) in IDL.  I open an output file (OPENW) and >> write out binary data (WRITEU).  I try to read the binary output into MS >> Fortran PowerStation (on a PC).  If I use a Fortran UNFORMATTED open, I get a >> wrong file type error in Fortran.  If I use a PowerStation BINARY open, it >> works.  However, only half the input array gets in, the other half is all 0s.
>> I think it has something to do with the "unformatted" data format.

I think you have to make shure what you write or read. Have you byta-data or integer-data. You have also the possibility to write or read float-data.

good luck

Christian