
Subject: terrain normalisation

Posted by Marcel Droz on Tue, 27 Jun 2000 07:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hi Everybody!

Does anybody have experience in "terrain normalisation" of satellite images?

As I'm working with NOAA-AVHRR data of the whole Swiss Alps, my idea is to calculate a raster image in order to determine pixelwise the angle between the incoming sun radiation and the normal to the surface. It would be a great help for me, if anybody could give me some information about such/similar routines.

Thanks a lot!
Marcel.
