
Subject: Re: assignment inside boolean expression
Posted by Ben Tupper on Tue, 11 Jul 2000 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Liam E.Gumley" wrote:

>
> Recall that in IDL, integers with odd non-zero values are Boolean
> 'True'. Beware of floats and doubles though, where any non-zero value is > Boolean 'True'.
>

Dang!

I just spent an hour figuring out an efficient way of determining if an integer is odd!

I have an IDL function ISODD() for sale... very cheap. No reasonable offer refused.

Ben

--
Ben Tupper

Bigelow Laboratory for Ocean Science
tupper@seadas.bigelow.org

pemaquidriver@tidewater.net
