Subject: Re: Top 10 IDL Requests
Posted by Craig Markwardt on Tue, 01 Aug 2000 07:00:00 GMT

"Liam E. Gumley" <Liam.Gumley@ssec.wisc.edu> writes:
> Michael Plonski wrote:
>> 1) Complement of Where - so the same call returns where, and a named >> variable returns where-not
>
> FUNCTION WHERENOT, TEST, COUNT > return, where(test eq 0, count)
> END
...
> It requires another 'where' call if you want the where and where-not,
> but I'm guessing this functionality isn't needed that often.

No, Mr. Plonski, myself, and several others on this news group were asking for the WHERE and its complement in the same function call. It does come up a fair amount for me, and it can be a big computation expense to do WHERE twice if the arrays are large.

Craig

--
 -- --------------
Craig B. Markwardt, Ph.D.   EMAIL: craigmnet@cow.physics.wisc.edu
Astrophysics, IDL, Finance, Derivatives | Remove "net" for better response
 -- --------------