
Subject: Re: Q(2): drawing continent
Posted by meyers on Thu, 26 May 1994 13:00:25 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In article <thompson.769885920@serts.gsfc.nasa.gov> thompson@serts.gsfc.nasa.gov (William Thompson) writes:

> meyers@lorenz.ocean.fsu.edu (Steve Meyers) writes:

>

>> I have two questions related to continental outlines:

>

>> 1) Can the continents be filled-in with a color or pattern? How?

>

>> 2) I want to contour an oceanic quantity around the continents. I'm aware of >> /overplot, but I get false effects near the continental boundaries since there >> is a "filler" value on the land locations. Is there a way to tell contour to ignore >> the unwanted (land) points?

>

>> Thanks in advance for any pointers on this.

>

> Would it help to set this filler value to something high, and then use the > MAX_VALUE keyword to tell CONTOUR to ignore them?

>

> Bill Thompson

Thanks. That answers question #2 (don't know why I didn't see it before).

-Steve
