JD, I know you are working on your thesis, so here is a tip for you. Put this kind of information in an Executive Summary at the TOP of your article or thesis, not at the very bottom. It will save a lot of head scratching and your thesis advisors will appreciate already understanding whatever it is you are tying to say. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. I have to say, you never disappoint me with your understanding of these issues. I really appreciate it.
Thanks.
