Subject: Re: Landsat 7 and IDL Insight Posted by Martin Schultz on Thu, 31 Aug 2000 07:00:00 GMT View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

The two or three time I tried to use insight out of curiosity eneded after about 10 seconds ou tof frustration and I preferred to go back to plain IDL. Maybe you have more luck with Liam Gumley's HDF reader?

Here's the link to his page: http://cimss.ssec.wisc.edu/~gumley/ Cheers, Martin Lee Mansfield wrote: > Hi all. > Recently I purchased the sample Landsat 7 agriculture data set from the > USGS. The file format is HDF, which IDL Insight opens but I was > wondering how do I get an actual image from these data sets? I?m > currently running IDL 5.2 on a SG O2 and when I access these files IDL > freezes and then stops operating. > > Could this be a hardware problem as the SG is getting a bit long in the > tooth? > Any suggestions or other programs to retrieve the data? > --> Cheers > Lee [[ Dr. Martin Schultz Max-Planck-Institut fuer Meteorologie [[[[Bundesstr. 55, 20146 Hamburg  $\prod$ phone: +49 40 41173-308 [[[[ $\prod$ fax: +49 40 41173-298 [[ martin.schultz@dkrz.de  $\prod$