I know, I know.

It was to show the skeleton of the original function without to show it entirely.

I found already the solution on manual and on...... your www page&nbsp;

Maybe as first resource&nbsp; I'd search on your web pages.

Have you idea of the difference between the two versions of the test code?

I think it is important to understand how IDL works.

Bye.
