View Forum Message <> Reply to Message In article <39F0A0F8.F1F69842@nssl.noaa.gov>, Edward Spencer <edward.spencer@nssl.noaa.gov> wrote: > Hi. > > I'm working on compiling some code in IDL 5.1. This code apparently > compiled and ran correctly on the Linux box it was developed on, but > when I try to compile it on a Sun, the compiler gets caught on calls to > uint() and uintarr()... > uint and uintarr were introduced in IDL 5.2. --Mike Michael Chinander University of Chicago

Subject: Re: uint(), uintarr() calls

Posted by mchinand on Fri, 20 Oct 2000 07:00:00 GMT

m-chinander@uchicago.edu (773)834-5101 (Voice) (773)702-0371 (Fax)