Subject: Re: IDL produced postscript files in latex Posted by Craig Markwardt on Thu, 19 Oct 2000 07:00:00 GMT

Nick Bower <bowern@ses.curtin.edu.au> writes:
>> As I and several others have pointed out, EPS not PS files >> should be used
>
> i think that's a bit harsh. dvi2ps does a superb job of merging > postscript into the output for me. plus you get the advantage of being > able to directly print the the printer. i think each method has its > advantages.

But it also doesn't handle landscape IDL files, which always come out upside down. Argh!

Craig

--
 --- -------------
Craig B. Markwardt, Ph.D.   EMAIL: craigmnet@cow.physics.wisc.edu
Astrophysics, IDL, Finance, Derivatives | Remove "net" for better response
 --- -------------