On Wed, 18 Oct 2000, Martin Schultz wrote:
> Karsten Rodenacker wrote:
>> Carsten Dominik schrieb:
>>> IDLWAVE 4.5 fixes a few minor bugs in the object support.
>>> (reported by JD Smith, as usually - is anybody else using this?).
>>>   http://www.strw.leidenuniv.nl/~dominik/Tools/idlwave
>>> - Carsten
>>
>> I am surprised that there is so little feedback on the tremendous work >> Carsten is doing with that (X)emacs mode idlwave! I think most users are >> happy with the state reached with idlde and are not aware of the >> possibilities of this emacs mode.
>
> Ohhhh. I for one just looove the idlwave emacs mode, and I am not > using anything else for editing of my IDL programs. However, I am > almost ashamed to reply to this thread, because I still haven't found > the time to play around with the shell within idlwave, and so I miss > out probably at least 80% of what idlwave can offer.

Hi,

I've spent some time useing the shell. The main problem that i run across is that now i have my emacs keys and my idl keys messed up. up-arrow doesn't recall my last IDL command anymore, it just moves up in the emacs text-buffer. Other than a few problems like that, it works quite nicely. Does anyone out there have a good workaround for this?

-ken.