I am using IDL 5.4 to create PostScript files of plain old X-Y plots. Some of the plots have usernames as the x-axis tick labels. When there are lots of users, or long names and lots of users, the labels overwrite each other, creating an un-readable mess. Is there an easy way to have the tick labels created at an angle? Thanks in advance.

Tom