
Subject: Re: CHANGING THE SIZE OF MOVIE WINDOW

Posted by Mark Hadfield on Mon, 11 Dec 2000 21:28:29 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Mark Chan" <chanm@cadvision.com> wrote in message news:911lsn$66e$1@news3.cadvision.com...

- > A movie file was created using one of the many options available in IDL
- > (E.G. WRITE_GIF (available in older versions of IDL), WRITE_BMP, ETC.)
- >
- > The movie was made using TVRD, /MULTIPLE at a specific window size
- > (e.g. WINDOW,0,400,300).
- >
- > Is there an easy way to change the window size of the now created movie
- file
- > so that it displays in a different sized window (e.g. 100 by 200) without
- > having to re-run the movie creation routine?

ImageMagick (<http://www.imagemagick.org/>) can do this for you.

Mark Hadfield

m.hadfield@niwa.cri.nz <http://katipo.niwa.cri.nz/~hadfield/>

National Institute for Water and Atmospheric Research

PO Box 14-901, Wellington, New Zealand
