Don't pay no attention to all this, David. Its the Ronn's new C book that took all places from 418,000 to 35,000. Once they sell all copies they have to those C and Java gurus, your rating will be back.

Cheers,
Pavel

P.S. Amazon is just screwed up for the holidays. They offered me free shipping three times but all three times they forgot to include the promised coupon code for that.
