Subject: Re: IDL Display under RH7
Posted by Todd Clements on Fri, 26 Jan 2001 22:49:25 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hugh Crowl <hugh@astro.yale.edu> wrote:

- > In attempting to display plots in IDL running under Red Hat 7.0 (KDE),
- > the plot comes up in the standard IDL graphics window, but if any of the
- > other windows overlap with it, the part of the IDL window that was
- > overlaped is erased. When the IDL window is brought up to the front, it
- > doesn't redraw the figure but insted it remains blank.

Retain is probably your problem:

```
;;
window,1, retain=2
plot, findgen(360), sin(findgen(360)*!pi/180)
window,2, retain=2
plot, findgen(360), cos(findgen(360)*!pi/180)
;;
```

Works for me!

Todd