

---

Subject: Re: commenting

Posted by Wayne Landsman on Fri, 09 Mar 2001 05:59:52 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

David Fanning wrote:

> John-David Smith (jdsmith@astro.cornell.edu) writes:

>

>> You mean like:

>>

>> [M-C-%]^\([C-u 73 .])\(.+\)[Ret]\1$[C-q C-j] \2[Ret]

>

> Is there a Berlitz course for this Emacs editor?

>

> Cheers,

>

My favorite apocryphal story about Emacs is that the name is really an acronym for Escape-Meta-Alt-Control-Shift, since its apparent purpose is to make one use those keys as much as possible.

Still, all those nice IDLWAVE mode features make me tempted to try one more time to learn Emacs. At least now I know where the Meta key is located...

--Wayne Landsman

landsman@mpb.gsfc.nasa.gov

---