Subject: Re: searching for available license
Posted by Craig Markwardt on Tue, 26 Jun 2001 03:28:23 GMT

Karl Hoppel <karl.hoppel@nrl.navy.mil> writes:

> Does anyone have a script for searching for an available floating > license?
> We have floating licenses distrubuted over many systems (one license for > each > person). Once in a while, someone will need to use a second license.
> My current method of finding one is to simply change the
> "LM_LICENSE_FILE" > environment variable to an alternate system/license and start IDL. I > can repeat this > procedure until I find a free license. There must be a quicker way, but > I don't know of > any way to poll a license server to see if a license is available.

I always thought you could list more than one license file, and IDL would check each one in succession. Separate with each file with a colon. Worth a try?

Craig

--
 -- -------------
Craig B. Markwardt, Ph.D.   EMAIL: craigmnet@cow.physics.wisc.edu
Astrophysics, IDL, Finance, Derivatives | Remove "net" for better response
 -- -------------