
Subject: Re: overlying data on an image

Posted by Liam E. Gumley on Sun, 22 Jul 2001 21:44:19 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Jairo Santana" <santana@icesat2.gsfc.nasa.gov> wrote in message news:3B570382.53A8BBC@icesat2.gsfc.nasa.gov...

> I have a grid of elevation heights in geo coordinates. Also I have > points:
> lats, lons, heights. I need to plot the lats, lons, and heights on top > of the grided image. How can I do that? Do I need to grid the data > points (lat,lon,h) first? any suggestion/code will help.

See the header for my IMDISP procedure for a couple of examples:

<http://cimss.ssec.wisc.edu/~gumley/imdisp.html>

Cheers,
Liam.
