
Subject: Re: happy palindrome day - and a challenge
Posted by thompson on Wed, 03 Oct 2001 20:21:51 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Mark Hadfield" <m.hadfield@niwa.cri.nz> writes:

>> Today is 10-02-2001

> No it's not, it's 2001-10-02.

> See <http://www.cl.cam.ac.uk/~mgk25/iso-time.html>

Here, here! My European colleagues would claim that 10-02-2001 was back in February. The ISO standard is far superior for computer uses, and doesn't confuse either Americans or the rest of the world.

William Thompson
