"David Fanning" <david@dfanning.com> wrote in message
news:MPG.16510d8749547d81989752@news.frii.com...
> Spade (arbi_ng_ter@ihug.com.au) writes:
>
>> Hi I want to binary data to file, specifically to PCM wave format (.wav).
>> I'm not sure how to do it correctly. If i have ascii or some numbers, how >> do I write the binary? I've been trying to write the ascii equivelant of my >> data to a text file, but If I try and convert the data to a formatted >> string, the 0's stop the conversion process, so it doesn't work. I can write >> the hex to a text file, and convert to binary in another app, but that is >> silly! What am I missing?
>
> WriteU.

For your application, would WRITE_WAV not be even easier? (maybe it won't do the PCM you want)

Cheers,
--
-Dick

Dick Jackson   /   dick@d-jackson.com
D-Jackson Software Consulting /   http://www.d-jackson.com Calgary, Alberta, Canada   / +1-403-242-7398 / Fax: 241-7392