

---

Subject: Re: Image question.

Posted by ratnakar amaravadi on Fri, 14 Oct 1994 15:59:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

In article <1994Oct12.112035.26360@msuvx1.memphis.edu> pvemulakonda@cc.memphis.edu (PAVAN VEMULAKONDA) writes:

> How can I read an image on the screen into an integer array and store it as > a data file (im.dat) consisting of integer data. Plz somebody help me with > this.
>
> Thanks.

You can use IDL's TVRD function. The following code may work.

```
result = tvrd()
result=fix(result)
openw, 1, 'im.dat'
writeu, 1,result
```

Any comments welcome.

Ratnakar Amaravadi Software/Hardware Engineer
Division of Imaging Sciences PET Research Program
Department of Radiology I.U. School of Medicine
Indianapolis IN 46202

Ph. : (317)274-1843 (w) amaravad@indiana.edu
(317)274-4074 (fax) amaravad@silver.ucs.indiana.edu
(317)632-5144 (h) ratty@foyt.indyrad.iupui.edu

--
Ratnakar Amaravadi Software/Hardware Engineer
Division of Imaging Sciences PET Research Program
Department of Radiology I.U. School of Medicine
Indianapolis IN 46202

---