Believe it or not (this is the kind of life I have, sigh...)
I actually thought about this after I wrote that. What I would prefer to say is "no one in their right mind", which is completely wrong, since I'm mixing singular and plural pronouns. But "his or her" is just so damn awkward.

I figured everyone knew I was old enough to be considered
"old school" and could get away with it. I guess I figured wrong. Or maybe you just figured with this limber mind I was still a young pup. :-)

Cheers,

David
