
Subject: Image processing question

Posted by rkj on Thu, 16 May 2002 15:41:11 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

How do I convert a color image(.jpg) to grayscale?

I am using PV-Wave's Image_Read function to read the image, which stores all the image info in an associative array.

Do I simply take the maximum RGB intensity value at each pixel in the 'pixels' array (xdim,ydim,3)? This gives me a grayscale image, but I'm not sure this is the "correct" one.

Kyle J.
