Subject: Re: How to record IDL animations to MPEG?
Posted by thompson on Mon, 14 Nov 1994 14:45:45 GMT

dean@phobos.cira.colostate.edu writes:

> Scott,

>   Give me a call next week. I can show you how.

>   I made some MPEGs from some of our GOES-8 rapid scan data. You need > to convert them to PPM first. This can be done with PBMplus util > GIFtoPPM. I have two MPEG encoders, one for DOS and one for UNIX.

>   Kelly Dean
>   CSU/CIRA

> P.S. I moved to the CIRA building.

This is also of interest to me. I understand the points about creating GIF files and converting them to PPM. What do you use then to convert it to MPEG?
If I had the name, I could probably find it with xarchie.

Thanks,

Bill Thompson