
Subject: Re: Solution of Nonlinear System of Equations (BROYDEN etc.)

Posted by air_jlin on Mon, 26 Aug 2002 21:04:46 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

hi Craig,

thanks much for your help! the FUNCTARGS features sounds like what i need!

best,

-Johnny

Craig Markwardt <craigmnet@cow.physics.wisc.edu> wrote in message news:<onelcn82di.fsf@cow.physics.wisc.edu>...

> [...]

>

> I wanted to add that if you define your function BROYFUNC, as it is > defined in the BROYDEN documentation, then you can use MPFIT directly > with no additional changes. The benefit is that you can also use the > nice FUNCTARGS features of MPFIT to pass named values to your function.

>

> Craig
