
Subject: Re: Butterworth Filtering and Inverse FFT problems
Posted by condor on Thu, 30 Jan 2003 22:22:49 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

jefield@taz.qinetiq.com (Julian Field) wrote in message news:<7126861e.0301220627.59052151@posting.google.com>...

- > My other problem is that in both cases, the final array is
- > (approximately) symmetrical about a vertical line at the centre of the
- > plot, while the original array certainly isn't! Presumably this is
- > something to do with positive/negative frequencies and/or
- > real/imaginary components?

I think you're looking for this:

http://airs2.ssec.wisc.edu/~paulv/fft/fft_comparison.html
