

---

Subject: Re: formatting array output?

Posted by James Kuyper on Thu, 30 Jan 2003 20:29:31 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

---

Murat Maga wrote:

...

> printf, 2, '$(2000F)'

> command is actually all i need. But I have one other silly question, > what if the size of the array is parametric? I tried to put the variable > name but that didnt work. Just for the record, I come from neither C nor > fortran school. No programming skills, unfortunately. I measure bones arrayform = '$(' + strtrim(columns,1) + 'F)'

printf, 2, arrayform, array

---