Well, I don't speak french and I've never seen an french article in this newsgroup - but I'm pretty new to it, too. Maybe you should try in english next time.

Anyways, here's something to start. Those two sites below provide heaps of little programs doing everything you can imagine. Maybe you learn something while reading their source or using them.

<http://www.rsinc.com/codebank/index.asp?list=bycategory&product=IDL>
<http://www.dfanning.com/documents/programs.html>

The last one also tries to sell you a book. I've got it here and I think it's a good one to start from NULL :). You should get it, if you seriously want to do anything with IDL.

The last hint I can give is: the online-help is very informative, too, if you know what you're looking for.

n'joy,
Tom
