Subject: Re: Upgraed to IDL 5.6, now having problem w/ linkimage
Posted by K Banerjee on Sat, 15 Mar 2003 20:02:52 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Hugh D. R. Evans <spam@hevans.xs4all.nl> wrote:
> Are you passing strings back and forth?

> From IDL 5.4 to IDL 5.5 they changed the maximum size of a string from 65534 > to 2^31-1. This means that the structure used to pass the string back and > forth has a different sized stringlength field.

> Might be the problem.

> Regards,
> Hugh

I believe I have the solution. I just needed to recompile with the new export.h header file. Thanks.

> "K Banerjee" <kbanerjee@ucwphilly.rr.com> wrote in message > news:RSJca.137731$Se4.11702180@twister.southeast.rr.com...
>> Folks,
>>
>> We upgraded from IDL 5.3 to IDl 5.6 and use several functions >> from a shared object file. We use LINKIMGAE to tell IDL about >> the functions from the shared object file. With IDL 5.3, everything >> worked. Now we are getting a core dump with IDL 5.6. Has LINKIMAGE >> changed in any wat between 5.3 and 5.6?
>>
>> Thanks.
>>
>> K. Banerjee