Well, thank goodness. I thought somebody would be interested in that nice piece of work! :-)

I'll be in contact, Mark.

Cheers,

David

P.S. If you think you would like some slick software, but you don't want to write it yourself, now is also a VERY good time to get a couple of very accomplished programmers with excellent object-oriented programming skills on the cheap. All the programs on the web page thrown in for free. :-)
