
Subject: Re: "TRUE" map projections

Posted by Serdar Manizade on Tue, 31 Jan 1995 13:54:28 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

afl@bjerknes.NoSubdomain.NoDomain (Andy Loughe) wrote:

>

> In article <3gjeud$t4g@post.gsfc.nasa.gov>, Serdar Manizade <manizade@osb1.wff.nasa.gov> writes:

> |> afl@bjerknes.NoSubdomain.NoDomain (Andy Loughe) wrote:

> |> > ...

> |> > than I--> "Use the /ISO keyword in your map_set call."

> |> > Is the ISO keyword a documented feature in IDL?

> |> > "No comment."

> |> ...

> |> I tried it. I did not find iso mentioned in the on-line documentation

> |> for map_set. (I am running: IDL. Version 3.6 (sunos sparc).)

> |> ...

> I am running IDL Version 3.6.1a (sunos sparc), and the /ISO > keyword works with map_set. I cannot vouch for earlier versions.

Thanks to Andy Loughe and Marion Legg. I updated to 3.6.1a and now have the /iso keyword to map_set. Now if only I had some documentation to understand what it does...

Serdar

EG&G/ NASA Wallops Flight Facility, Virginia, USA
