
Subject: Re: Angstrom symbol in IDL5.6

Posted by K. Bowman on Thu, 24 Apr 2003 19:31:19 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In article <3EA656F8.65FA0695@Riso.dk>,
Kristian Kjaer <Kristian.Kjaer@Riso.dk> wrote:

> On http://www.dfanning.com/misc_tips/angstrom.html Dave Fanning shows us > how to draw an 'Angstrom symbol' (which is of course just the last > letter of the alphabet used around here).

>

> Something like:

> angstrom = '!6!sA!r!u!9 %!n!x'

> XYOUTS, 0.1, 0.5, /Normal, CharSize=5.0, 'Symbol: ' + angstrom

Not what you wanted, I know, but what about using nanometers (nm). Many journals will no longer allow non-SI units.

Ken Bowman
