
Subject: Re:"TRUE" map projections

Posted by Serdar Manizade on Fri, 27 Jan 1995 16:00:30 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I repost my note since subject was missing. Apologies.

Serdar Manizade <manizade@osb1.wff.nasa.gov> wrote:

>

> zawodny@arbd0.larc.nasa.gov (Joseph M Zawodny) wrote:

>> possible I use "circular" map projections and the SET_ISOXY routine. But,

>

> Where is the SET_ISOXY routine?

>

> When I produce a map, I have to pull out my ruler and measure the > latitude and longitude scales to see if I got the scaling right. I > make adjustments whenever I change my output map aspect ratio or the > coordinates of the map. Especially important at high latitudes.
