
Subject: Re: patch update message on idlde
Posted by Karl Schultz on Thu, 15 May 2003 23:14:15 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

"Tevolo" <anywhere@anywhere.com> wrote in message news:3EC40D47.8070002@anywhere.com...

> Hi,
>
> I installed patches to update the motif libraries so IDL 5.5 widgets > work correctly with solaris 8. However the annoying warning sign on the > log window of idlde still appears. Does anyone know how to remove it?
>
> IDL is installed across the network but I installed the patches only > locally on my machine. Could this be the reason why the message keeps > appearing?

IDL isn't going to attempt to see if the patch is installed.

You can remove or rename the help/motd/sunos.txt file in the IDL installation directory.

Or start IDL with

idl -quiet

to not print the MOTD (Message of the day) and other startup info.
