Subject: Re: Software for DTM color map?
Posted by Mitch on Mon, 07 Jul 2003 16:52:03 GMT

xu wrote:
> Hi,
>
> DTM (Ascii xyz) should be read in and after tragulation, the results should > be stored in RGB image in > the way that later this image can be interpolated by the color (RGB values) > to height value. Some > software? or it is easy to realize with IDL, VB...?
>
> thanks!
> xmx.
>
>
Its probably more than you want but you can do this with RockWorks or Surfer. Either one will let you define your own color table and export as a raster image.

Mitch Wolberg
RockWare, Inc.
http://www.rockware.com