Actually, I've been injured more or less since December of last year, so a wheelchair may be in my future. It's been a wrist, then an elbow, and I am just entering my first tournament of the year this week. I was expecting my shoulder to blow out, but maybe it will be a knee. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. Let's just say I hope I am a better wheelchair player than a left-handed player. Even my wife beat me this summer. :-)
