
Subject: stupid question about CALL_EXTERNAL
Posted by vek on Sun, 05 Mar 1995 21:39:08 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I'd like to use a FORTRAN program/subroutine that returns four values. My reading of CALL_EXTERNAL seems to indicate that it will only pass one value back to IDL. How do I get all four? Do I have to call four different mini-programs, each calling the subroutine and returning one of the values? (Surely not!) Hopefully there is a suitably obvious answer to what is probably a stupid question...

--

Vincent Kargatis -- Space Physics & | THE BOYS: "Hooty! Hooty! Hooty!"
Astronomy, Rice U., Houston, TX | BARBARA: "Howdy Hooty Sapperticker!"
[vek@spacsun.rice.edu] | - "Hooty Sapperticker"
[http://spacsun.rice.edu/~vek/vek.html] | by Barbara and the Boys
