I have an image where I calculate an vegetation index and now I'd like to classify it with differents standard classification techniques: Natural Breaks (Jenks): identification of break points by looking for groupings

Quantile: each class contains an equal number of feature.

I'm more interessed to the second technique, have someone the IDL code

Thank you in advance

Nacho