
Subject: IDLgrPolygon semi opaque / transperent polygons

Posted by nasalmon on Fri, 12 Dec 2003 16:59:50 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Is there any capability in IDL for making polygons semi-opaque? There you would set no hidden facet and be able to see one polygon through another polygon. This would be a useful facility for some spectral imaging wavebands where materials are semitransparent.

I see in IDLgrPolygon there is a boolean operator for opacity, but i am interested in partial transparency.

many thanks,
Neil
