Subject: Re: IDL: Printing on Tektronics Phaser
Posted by isaacman on Fri, 10 Apr 1992 18:56:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

In article <92097.181551ATPPH@ASUACAD.BITNET>, <ATPPH@ASUACAD.BITNET> writes...
> I have a relatively simple problem: For transparencies
> it is sometimes useful to keep the background color
> 'black'. The IDL Postscript-device, however, swaps > foreground and background colors as compared to the > 'X' device. How do I get around this default? I have > tried changing |p.background and |p.color or modifying > the color table. The plots are generated by 'standard' > shade_surf, plot etc. commands (no images). Screen-dumps > look OK, but the resolution is not satisfactory.
>
> Thanks,
>   Peter.
>
Use COLOR=255 as a plotting keyword.

Rich Isaacman