: No Sir, I do not mean this at all. I was surprised to see
: in Japan that the cost of Japanese products was significantly
: higher than the same product abroad. If that is representative
: of the costs of doing business in Japan and(or) the costs of
: distribution, then the price of IDL may be justified.

: What I meant was that there is no point in forgetting civility

Is that a grizzly, a polar or a panda?
How did you get an export license for it?
And shouldn't this be in alt.zoos ?

: even though the price was not right for me there were a lot of
: Japanese businessmen there who did not mind paying that amount.

: It may be sir, that you should focus your energy on something positive.
