Subject: Re: LOADCT and TVSCL
Posted by Antonio Santiago on Fri, 19 Mar 2004 18:41:02 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

No Nuno,

if you put 255-i that isn't a vector.
You can do:

v = reverse(indgen(256))

then v is a vector with 255,254,...0 and you can use like a RGB.

Bye :)

Nuno Oliveira wrote:
> Suppose I want to use B-W Linear color table inverted. From white do > black. I thought this code could do it:
>
> LOADCT, 0
> for i = 0, 255 do TVLCT, 255-i, 255-i, 255-i, i > TVSCL, img
>
> Doesn't work. I haven't understood well how TVLCT works? What's wrong?
> How can I make it?
>
> Thanks,
>
> Nuno.
>