I expect you have more Live Tools than you need. (Some may argue that one is too many, but you get the point.)

I suppose a case could be made for this. But that is not how RESOLVE_ALL works at the moment. Something to bring up with RSI, probably.

No, using these routines will certainly cause you problems, sooner or later, but those problems will be completely unrelated to the problem we are discussing currently. :-)
